FICTIONAL DEMONSTRATION POLICY. This document was created for the OnboardIQ college project demo. OnboardIQ Technologies is a fictional company; this is not a real company policy and must not be relied on.

Purpose

This policy sets out the behaviour expected of everyone at OnboardIQ Technologies and explains how concerns and breaches are handled.

1. Workplace behaviour

Treat colleagues, customers and partners with respect and courtesy. Discrimination based on gender, religion, caste, age, disability, sexual orientation or any other protected characteristic is not tolerated.

Arrive prepared for meetings, keep commitments, and use company resources responsibly.

Alcohol and illegal substances are not permitted at the workplace, except alcohol at company events where it is formally approved.

2. Professional communication

Communicate clearly, politely and honestly in person, by email and on chat.

Reply to internal emails within one (1) working day, even if only to acknowledge them.

Do not share confidential company information on social media, and do not speak on behalf of the company publicly unless authorised by the Communications team.

3. Anti-harassment

OnboardIQ Technologies has zero tolerance for harassment, including sexual harassment, bullying and intimidation, whether in the office, remotely or at company events.

Complaints of sexual harassment are handled by the Internal Committee (IC) under the POSH policy. Complaints should be made in writing within three (3) months of the incident to ic@onboardiq-demo.example.

The Internal Committee completes its inquiry within ninety (90) days of receiving a complaint. All complaints are kept confidential.

Retaliation against anyone who raises a concern in good faith is itself a serious breach of this policy.

4. Ethics

- Gifts and hospitality from customers or suppliers may be accepted only up to a value of INR 2,000 per occasion. Gifts above this value must be declined or declared to People Operations.
- Declare any actual or potential conflict of interest to your manager and People Operations within seven (7) days of becoming aware of it.
- Do not trade in shares based on confidential information you learn through your work.
- Report suspected fraud or unethical conduct to the confidential ethics line at ethics@onboardiq-demo.example. Reports can be made anonymously.

5. Disciplinary procedures

Breaches of this policy are handled fairly and consistently. Depending on how serious the breach is, actions include:

Stage	Action	Typical use
1	Verbal warning	Minor first breach
2	Written warning	Repeated or more serious breach
3	Final written warning	Continued breach after a written warning
4	Suspension or termination	Gross misconduct (e.g. harassment, fraud, violence)

Written warnings remain on file for twelve (12) months. Gross misconduct can lead directly to termination.

Before any written action, the employee is told the concern in writing and given a chance to respond at a meeting, where they may bring a colleague.

Employees can appeal a disciplinary decision in writing to the Head of People Operations within seven (7) working days of the decision.
